

MEET THE STUDENT BODY 2017

There is a total of 117 student enrolled at the School of Biblical Studies, Jos. We have 94 male and 23 female students. Our four-year degree program has 90 students while our Diploma Program has 9 and our certificate program has 18 students. Our students come from 22 of the 36 States in Nigeria. We also have 2 students from Uganda and one student from Zimbabwe, Guinea, and Sierra Leone.

Of the 23 women students; 5 are married and 18 are single. Five are in their first year, t3 in their second year, 7 in their third year, and 8 are expected to graduate this May. We are continuing construction of our student dorm so our female students will be able to live on campus. This will provide the security and safety all of our student need.

First Year Students

Second Year Students

Third Year Students

Fourth Year Students

Our 2017 Ladies

WELCOME TO THE BENJAMIN JUKWEY FAMILY

Benjamin Jukwey was born in Benue State, March 5, 1976, to a polygamous family. He was the third child of his mother's seven children. Benjamin is married to Gloria Gammicit Jukwey and they are blessed with three children: Shirley Tishi (7 yrs 2009), Kevin Ongha (5 yrs 2012) and Josiah Ela (7 months 2016).

He was trained as a Technical student with intention of studying engineering but changed his mind in 2001 when he became a Christian, and decided to study God's word at the School of Biblical Studies, Jos, where he obtained his diploma in Bible and BA Biblical Studies. Benjamin also holds a Post Graduate Diploma in Education from the National Teachers' Institute, Kaduna. His love for the Word of God caused him to proceed to study at the University of Jos where he did an MA Biblical Studies New Testament and is currently doing his PhD in Biblical Studies New Testament.

Benjamin worked with the Laranto Church of Christ for a period of one year and moved to work with the Church of Christ, Gidan Waya, where he served as a full-time preacher and follow-up evangelist for four years. In 2011, he spear-headed the starting of the Bible Translation project into the Etulo language (his mother tongue), where he worked as a full-time translation coordinator from 2011 until 2015. He also joined the Nigeria Bible Translation Trust staff as a training officer/internship coordinator. In January, 2017, Benjamin joined the staff of SBS as a full time lecturer.

FOUR SBS STUDENTS

The School of Biblical Studies, Jos has become the school that many Africans chose to seek an outstanding education in Bible and Biblical Languages. We have graduated 35 foreign students from 8 different countries in Africa plus two students from Bangladesh. We hope you enjoy meeting four of our present students.

Kanneng Bitrus Pam was born in 1995 at Jos South, Plateau State. Both her parents are Christian so, Kanneng was raised in a Christian family. Her preacher, while she was growing up in Jos, was a graduate of SBS. She is the first of three children. Kanneng is in her third year at SBS and wants to teach in a Primary or Secondary school after she graduates and serves her country for one year in the National Youth Service Corp. She expects to marry a Christian and bring people to Jesus.

Faith Ishoma Chucwadi is a third year student from Delta State. She is the third of 7 children. Her parents are members of the Church of Christ, so she was raised in a Christian family. Her preacher is a graduate of SBS. Born in 1995, she was baptized into Christ in 2009. All the female students are living off campus, but are looking forward to the day we provide accommodations on campus. Faith wants to teach children the love of Jesus and how to become a Christian.

Avur Brian Opio was born in June of 1991. He is from Kigumba, Uganda. He traveled to Nigeria in 2013 to study for a four year accredited degree in Bible at SBS. Brian is married with one child. His family remained in Uganda, so Brian is really looking forward to returning home after his graduation in May. Brian was a Catholic when he met and agreed to study with Brother Luke Apumaku who is one of our 5 graduates that teach at UCBC in Uganda. Brian was baptized in 2012. His goal in life is to pass on the wonderful gift of salvation to others. Brian said that attending SBS caused a major improvement in his life. Being with African Christians from other counties taught him much about living a faithful Christian life and how to communicate with people.

Apuuni Godfrey is a first year student at SBS who was born in northeastern Uganda in 1989. Apuuni is a single man baptized in 2012 by Brother Jeremiah, who a graduate of the Uganda Christian Bible Collage. He came out of the Catholic Church and has a hunger to know the Bible. Apuuni is seeking a four-year degree in Bible but is on probationary status. The University of Jos requires that he pass his WAEC examination in mathematics during his first year at SBS.